- Welcome

- Trinkets and Treasures Sale

Sue reported that the total raised on April 2nd was $8,807.15. There were $300 in expenses so $8,507.15 were deposited into CPTG bank account bringing the group's balance to $20,000.

Holly received gifts and thanks for all that she did to make the sale a huge success. Carla wrote a thank you to those who helped with the sale that will appear in the upcoming e-news.

Holly proposed and it was accepted that the group give the custodians $100 as a thank you.

- Grants

Kristina said that a parent, Lisa Rowell, had emailed her wondering if the CPTG would provide funds for the senior class's Project Graduation. The group had planned to offer funding but was waiting to be asked and will provide $500.

- Administrative Update

Jay spoke with someone at South Burlington High School who attended the 'Most Likely to Succeed' video and discussion. They said it was a great movie. Had only about 30 people attend which was lower than anticipated. The movie and discussion were held on two different nights because the movie is 1½ hours long. The discussion night had fewer folks attend, but seemed worthwhile. Middlebury is showing it April 28th at 7pm, not sure where. Jay said that they were thinking about showing it to the staff on a inservice day. The CPTG is considering offering it to the public in the fall.

Next meeting: Wednesday, May 4th, 2016 from 6:30-8:00pm
